Luke and Naomi ready for festival

■ Michele Sternberg

THEY have been called the Beckhams of Brisbane and they're making their way to Noosa to perform in separate 'bookend' shows during the Noosa alive! festival this month.

Luke Kennedy and Naomi Price spoke to Noosa News this week about the festival, their parts in it, and what they're most looking forward to.

The glamour couple said the festival would be a rare chance to spend some time together amid their hectic work schedules.

"It's been a massive year. I've been on the road since the beginning of the year so I'm excited to be in one place for 10 whole days," Naomi said.

"For me it's going to be nice to just be there and absorb the atmosphere of the whole festival."

Luke laughs and said he'll still be trekking between Noosa and Brisbane with work commitments, but is still "definitely looking forward to it".

"It's the first time I'm doing any show with a seven-piece band like this," Luke said.

"I've been touring the show with mostly me and a piano - this is the deluxe version with an extended set list."

Luke Kennedy, His Voice is 100 minutes of songs in which Luke slides between musical styles as he takes the audience on his journey from a young teenage pub rocker through to touring as a member of The Ten Tenors, to ultimately breaking out as Ricky Martin's grand finalist, and series runner-up, on The Voice Australia Season 2.

The show at The J is being held on opening night and kicks off the inaugural festival under the Noosa alive! banner.

Meanwhile, Naomi will be busy as the official festival ambassador until her performance in Lady Beatle at The J the following Saturday night.

Lady Beatle is a modern memory play set to a kaleidoscopic soundtrack of The Beatles' biggest hits.

The show weaves a fantastical tale about the women who inspired The Beatles' biggest chart toppers, including Lucy in the Sky With Diamonds, Eleanor Rigby, Penny Lane and Yesterday.
