Falling in love again ...

TAKE a step back in time during next month's Noosa Alive! festival at the Queensland premiere performance of the cabaret show Falling in Love Again – a tribute to Marlene Dietrich. Noosa News spoke to the star of the show, Jennifer Ward-Lealand, this week from her home in chilly New Zealand and it's no wonder she's looking forward to spending a few days in Noosa this winter. See Noosa Life, page 33, for the full story.

NOOSA KEEPS ITS RATES RISE DOWN

Ratepayers better off than Sunshine Coast counterparts

NOOSA ratepayers on the general minimum rates still have their noses in front of their counterparts in local Sunshine Coast Council areas like Peregrine Springs, Doonan, Weyba Downs and Eumundi. The average general rate for the SCC region already handed down last week was $1166, an increase of $28 to $1166. This compares to an expected general rate rise to be handed down next Thursday of $21 to $1081 on last year or 2%. SCC ratepayers are set to pay an extra $4 for the wheelie bin collection service with the charge rising to $280 a year, while in Noosa the introduction of green waste bins will see

Noosa ratepayers enjoy mixed fortunes. About 11,000 premises which will continue to have
